To Whom It May Concern

Mount Juliet Estate have been working with Blanchfield Heating for many years on a number of different projects but most recently on The Golf Clubhouse and in that time they have consistently listened to our requirements and through their expert and in-depth knowledge implemented the best solution for us time and time again. Their high level of professionalism, reliability and understanding of our business requirements are key characteristics that distinguish them from the competition. They are good, conscientious Contractors who deliver quality projects on time, within budget and are always dealing safely in the active hotel environment.

Yours faithfully
